Two Gunmen Rob Brodheadsville Bank Of Nearly $35,000 And Escape In Auto

Manager, Teller Holdup Victims

By Robert Clark
Daily Record City Editor

BRODHEADSVILLE—Two daring, gun-toting men robbed the Brodheadsville branch bank of the Monroe Security Trust Company of $34,238.75 at 11 a.m. yesterday.

Invading the bank at a time when no customers were about, the pair of gunmen forced bank Manager Antone Vogler and teller Miss Ada Sommers into a vault and then cleaned out the drawers in back of the tellers' counter where the $35,000 in five, ten and 20-dollar denominations were kept.

State Police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation, upon being alerted by Security Bank officials, went into action also almost immediately. Setting up roadblocks throughout the county and calling for a helicopter to scan the countryside, police used every available manpower in the hunt for the two robbers.

Surprised

Neither Vogler nor Miss Sommers saw the gunmen enter the bank, and it wasn't until the pair stuck two revolvers into their faces and shouted, "This is a stickup," that their presence became known.

The taller of the two men, who is estimated to be 50 years or older, said, "Hold still or we'll blast you."

Immediately the pair went around the counter and ordered Miss Sommers and Vogler into the vault and told them "to stay in there and not to give any alarm."

While forcing the bank employees into the vault, the two gunmen pulled on gloves and shut the door.

It was at this point that the pair stripped the drawers of the contents of the estimated $35,000. The younger robber, believed to be 30 years old, was told to get the car ready for the getaway.

Set Off Alarm

Miss Sommers and Vogler, both East Stroudsburg residents, heard this conversation and waited awhile before setting off a burglar alarm in the vault which is connected with Altmore's Store in Brodheadsville.

After waiting seven minutes, Miss Sommers and Vogler came out of the unlocked vault and Vogler phoned Security Trust in Stroudsburg. The bank in turn called the State Police at Stroudsburg.

The descriptions given by the bank employees of the bandits noted that one man was 50 years or over, five-feet, nine inches tall, dark complexioned, dirty features and needed a shave. He was wearing a green shirt, tan hat and was about 160 pounds in weight.

The second man was five-feet four and a half inches in height and weighed between 140 and 145 pounds. He was clothed in dark clothing, a fedora hat, and wore dark-rimmed glasses. He was believed to be of Italian extraction.

Only Brief Look

Miss Sommers and Vogler were able to get only a fleeting glimpse of the pair. That was when the guns were brandished into the faces of Vogler first and then Miss Sommers.

Both Miss Sommers and Vogler said the robbery took approximately seven minutes and the first person to reach the scene was Lloyd Altmore who came rushing upon hearing the alarm in his store.

Prior to the holdup, Lloyd's son, Robert, was a bank customer, barely missing the action which took place a short while later.

Both Miss Sommers and Vogler were visibly shaken up by the ordeal. However, the pair answered questions freely to the police, FBI and newsmen.

State Police from Hazleton, Lehigh, Fern Ridge, Stroudsburg and Mount Pocono were on duty throughout the day and night. Last night, midnight patrols were set up at various points in attempting to get clues and better identification of the get-away car.

Two possible listings of vehicles were checked out yesterday afternoon but both proved negative.

The bank, one of four under the Monroe Security banner, is situated at the junction of Routes 115 and 209 about 13 miles west of Stroudsburg. Monroe Security Bank executive Robert Davenport was the

Bank Messengers Robbed In 1942

THE LAST BANK robbery in Monroe County took place in the summer of 1942, when two men going to the Stroudsburg Postoffice were robbed of $72,000 in "broad daylight" by two armed men.

Details of the spectacular robbery and getaway were recalled last night by Francis Drake, vice president of the First Stroudsburg National Bank.

Two of the bank's messengers figured in the 18-year-old incident. The employees — Ralph Rheinfels and Lewis Heiney — were on their way to the postoffice to send the money to the Federal Reserve Bank in Philadelphia. The bills were "worn out" and were to have been replaced with new ones.

As they walked down the east side of S. Seventh St. Rheinfels and Heiney were stopped by two men who had been standing on the curb in front of what is now the new addition of the Bell Telephone Building.

Armed with a Tommy gun, the gunmen grabbed the money and fled the scene in a waiting car, eluding road blocks set up by the State Police throughout the county.

The gunmen made their way to Minisink Hills and crossed the Erie Railroad Bridge, then in the process of being torn down. About half-way across the span they were confronted by a workman.

The trainmen, thinking the robbers were police officers, aided them in climbing on the train so they could cross over it to New Jersey.

It was said that once on the Jersey side of the river they entered a waiting car. In the car were another man and a woman.

The four made their escape into New Jersey while local and state police with members of the FBI conducted a wide-spread search.

A man named Greco, described as the ringleader of the gang, was arrested in New Jersey. The remaining three are said to have been apprehended later.

Loan Company Holdup

One other financial institution, although not a bank, figured in a holdup in recent years. Two robbers, one tall and the other short, walked into the Standard Loan Co., office in Stroudsburg and robbed it of several hundred dollars.

Later Paul Whelan, bank treasurer, arrived to ascertain the correct amount of money stolen. Today the bank which carries policies on such matters, will be reimbursed by an insurance company covering the entire loss.

DESCRIBES HOLDUP—Antone Vogler, manager of Brodheadsville branch of Monroe Security Bank and Trust Co., describes to State Police how he was held up by two men. Sgt. Frank Burtner of Stroudsburg barracks, is at left facing camera.

Flood Program Jeopardized

PP&L Bills Stroudsburg For $42,500

THE Pennsylvania Power and Light Co. last night threw what may be a $42,500 roadblock in the path of a flood control program for Stroudsburg.

At a meeting of Stroudsburg Borough Council, an agreement was presented for council signatures calling for the payment of that amount for relocation of its facilities on a 20-acre tract of land where its substation is located.

In a letter dated Feb. 3, 1960, the company had offered the borough 17 of the 20 acres for construction of dikes and other flood control necessities "at no cost to the borough."

Edward R. Lawson, council president, who called the agreement an "arbitrary action," said:

"This claim may very well be the difference between flood control or no flood control for this borough."

Lawson called for a special meeting of council next week at which he said he wanted answers to these questions:

1. How much the $42,500 charge can an modified.

2. To what extent owners of property who have been cooperative in the flood control project should be considered.

3. Where council is going to get the money if the figure cannot be reduced.

Lawson, who said he was shocked by the request and who was obviously upset by it, added:

"That section of the borough is a flood plain and was so before any facilities were there. They located there knowing the section."

"I believe that as good citizens and good neighbors it behooves us to come to the aid of these people. But I do not feel we should pay these people for aiding them."

Pointing out that the flood control project will enhance the value of property located in low-lying areas, he added:

"If we pay PP & L $42,500 or any part thereof, we'd better consider claims for relocating storage sheds, parking lots and other facilities which have had to be moved."

Lawson also asked these questions and directed Borough Manager Harold E. Snyder and Borough Engineer Edward C. Hess to get the answers prior to next week's special meeting:

1. What causes this relocation to be necessary. He said some relocation might be necessitated by building dikes and if so, he wants to know what proportion.

2. How many service poles does the company have within borough lines?

3. What have other boroughs done when confronted by a similar situation?

In answer to a question from Burgess Edward A. Doran, Lawson said he had no ideas of reprisal against the company in questioning the number of poles they have in the borough.

"I have something definitely in mind," he said. He did not elaborate.

The special meeting will be called by Snyder after information sought by council is secured.

Health Care Bill Sent To Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration sent the Democratic-controlled Congress a proposal Wednesday for a $1,200,000,000 annual federal-state medical program for the aged.

First reaction ranged from cool to hostile among Democrats; uncommitted to enthusiastic among Republicans.

The administration plan would be free for public welfare recipients, but cost others eligible $24 a year per person. Single persons with not more than $2,500 annual income, couples with not more than $3,800 would be eligible.

Like a major medical insurance policy, the plan would protect against expenses of long illnesses, but the participant, unless he was on public welfare, would have to pay the first $250 of annual expense — $400 for a couple — and 20 percent of expenses thereafter.

Differ's From Forand's

The proposal is the administration's rival to the Social Security-linked plan sponsored by Rep. Aime J. Forand (D-RI) and backed by some, but not all Democrats.

Forand's plan would cover persons retired under the Social Security program for the aged.

Good Morning!

Man's greatest success lies in his ability to place himself in the position of his fellow man.

TRAFFIC JAM outside Brodheadsville branch of Monroe Security Bank and Trust Co. was created yesterday by police and FBI cars following robbery which netted—at least for the present—two robbers $35,000. Roadblocks were thrown up at various strategic points throughout as police pressed search for gunmen.

Dear Abby

What Makes You Ask?

Dear Abby: I know a man, about 60, and a woman, 50, who have gone together for ten years. Neither has ever been married. He always told her he couldn't marry her because his mother didn't approve. His mother has been dead three years and the situation is still the same.

That man practically lives at her apartment. He picks her up every evening after work and they go marketing together. Then he fixes him supper in her apartment and they watch TV together. He bought her a dog and they call it their "baby." She sees as much of him as I see of my husband—only he goes home nights. Don't you think someone should step in and put a stop to this scandalous way of living?

JUST ASKING
Dear Abby: What's so scandalous about it?

Dear Abby: I am a 10-year-old girl with a problem. I know that girls are not supposed to run after boys, but if we don't run after them, how are we supposed to catch them?

JAN
Dear Jan: Girls are not supposed to "catch" boys. Nothing makes a boy run faster than being chased. When you see a boy you like, ignore him. He'll soon wonder what's wrong with him and he'll start chasing you just to prove to himself that he can catch you. Then—you've "caught" him.

Dear Abby: I say when a married couple goes out (in a car) with another married couple, each wife should sit with her own husband.

My co-worker says this is definitely MIDDLE-CLASS. She says it is HIGH-CLASS for the wife of one couple to sit with the husband of the other. Also, she says if two women sit together in the back seat while their husbands sit together in the front seat, that is LOW-CLASS. Is there anything to what she says, or am I correct?

J. F.
Dear J. F.: When two married couples go out together, it is always correct for the husband to sit with his own wife. It is never correct for a man to sit with his friend's wife. In cases where the wives are very friendly and the husbands have a great deal in common, it is permissible for the wives to sit in the back and the husbands in the front. Confidential to D. S.: Your friend is right. If you have an 1856 penny with the "flying eagle," it is worth between $400 and $1250 to a collector of rare coins.

"What's your problem?" Write to Abby in care of this paper. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's pamphlet, "What Teen-agers Want To Know," send 25¢ and a large, self-addressed, stamped, envelope in care of this paper.

Lawrence Eyes 'GOP' Downfall

WITH THE state senate elections coming up this fall the rural counties of the state will be keeping their eye on the returns as the outcome could mean the end of their (Republican) legislative balance of power.

Since 1954, when Gov. Leader was elected, the state's rural regions have watched their legislative majority dwindle.

Gov. Lawrence is hopeful in getting enough of the Senate seats to give the Democrats a majority in the chamber. They now hold a majority in the House.

Lilac Shrub Is Irregular In Habit

LILAC NOTES: Many of our readers are concerned about their lilac bushes. Should the old, leggy growth be cut out or will it mean a loss of blooms? Keep in mind that the normal lilac shrub is irregular in habit. You can't adapt it to topiary work (that is, shear the tops) and expect it to bloom. Its flowering is from the top buds of its branches, and any pruning should be done with the fact in mind. However, if your bush has broken branches in it, weak, dead limbs which rub against each other, by all means get the pruning shears out and go to work to improve the bush. The old, neglected seed pods are often unsightly, and these can be cut off, or wait until after the flowering is over. Care must be taken not to clip too far down the stem as to injure or remove next year's crop of blooms. Cut out all old wood to ground level. An abundance of sucker sprouts is a common thing with lilacs. Select the best few of these and cut off the unwanted ones. It takes but a short time for transplanted suckers to make good flowering plants. You can move suckers even if they have leafed out, if you make sure the plants are well watered.

Fooling the Birds

A reader writes: "If you want to keep birds out of your cherry tree, try this trick. Cut an old garden hose into three foot lengths and paint them a bright yellow color. The birds think the trees are full of snakes and will not bother the fruit. Try it!"

Strawberry Fruit Mold

It's exasperating to have your crop of strawberries rot before you can pick them. Humid, cloudy, warm weather favors this trouble, and soft, or heavily fertilized berries are susceptible. CONTROL: Mulching the berry rows will prevent ripening fruit from coming in contact with the soil. This is desirable because fruits may get dirty or injured by contact with the soil. Also, some disease organisms are soil-borne.

Sprays or dusts will help control fruit mold, and the earlier you can get them on the better. Use Captan as a spray or dust. As a spray, I use 1/2 lb. of 50 per cent Wettable Captan to 12 1/2 gals. of water and the foliage is wet thoroughly. It's also a good idea to wet the ground and the mulch as well. Early sprays are important to prevent growth of fungus on fruit stalks and green berries. The prevention of rot in the first pickings is necessary to save the larger, most profitable fruit and prevent rot in later pickings.

QUESTION of The Week: G.M. of Stroudsburg: "Our daffodils have been in for 3 years now. Last year they did fine, but only a few blossomed this year. What was wrong?"

Narcissus or Daffodils (names are interchangeable) are variable in their blooming habits. I've seen narcissus bulbs naturalized among trees, blooming for years, without disturbance. In some cemetery plots they have come up year after year, blooming profusely. Yet, in a well cared perennial border the bulbs often bloom only one year, or possibly two years. If yours do not bloom the second year, I'd dig them up and replant them in a well prepared soil. Some gardeners do not dig narcissus bulbs up each year, but leave them undisturbed in the group for 3 years.

Then when the foliage has turned yellow three-quarters of the way from the top, they are dug, divided and bulbs replanted immediately. I think the type of soil you have determines how often you should dig and replant your bulbs.

Daffodils left in one place too long quickly reproduce underground, producing grassy foliage and few or no flowers. I dig my daffs and tulips every other year and replant them immediately after digging. I feel that summer storage of these bulbs isn't necessary. The earth itself is the best place for storing them.

Incidentally, forced pots of daffs, tulips, hyacinths, and related items should be planted outdoors. Do not attempt to force them again. Plant them out and let them build up enough food reserves so they'll bloom again in 2 or 3 years.

D.L. of Tafton: "What is happening to our songbirds? This year I have not had a robin in my backyard, and there were only a few wrens, striped sparrows, a pair of Cardinals and some English sparrows. I'm afraid the sprays you recommend is responsible for fewer birds. They are poisoning our food which birds eat."

There's no doubt that our modern pesticides have poisoned a good many of our birds. But I think there are other factors involved here. For example, I've seen chipmunks and squirrels rob robin's nests, carrying away the blue eggs. And I'm wondering if last winter's heavy snow didn't help reduce the bird population in some way. Personally, I wish we could do away with all our chemical control methods, but if we did, complaints would be louder than ever. For example, years ago when you bought apples, you paid little attention to whether they were wormy, because we used to eat around the worm holes. Today, if we were sold wormy apples growers

Gen. Thomas S. Power made this description of the solid-fuel, mobile missile as he arrived at this Air Force base in northern Utah to inspect facilities for a coming test of proposed railroad launching facilities.

Commissioners Praised

The Monroe County Commissioners are to be congratulated for appointing a new regional redevelopment authority to replace the one named nearly five years ago.

Elmer D. Christine, the only holdover member, is joined by James S. Bunnell and the three county commissioners as members of the new authority. The commissioners are John R. Lesoine, Willard Quick and Stanley Rader.

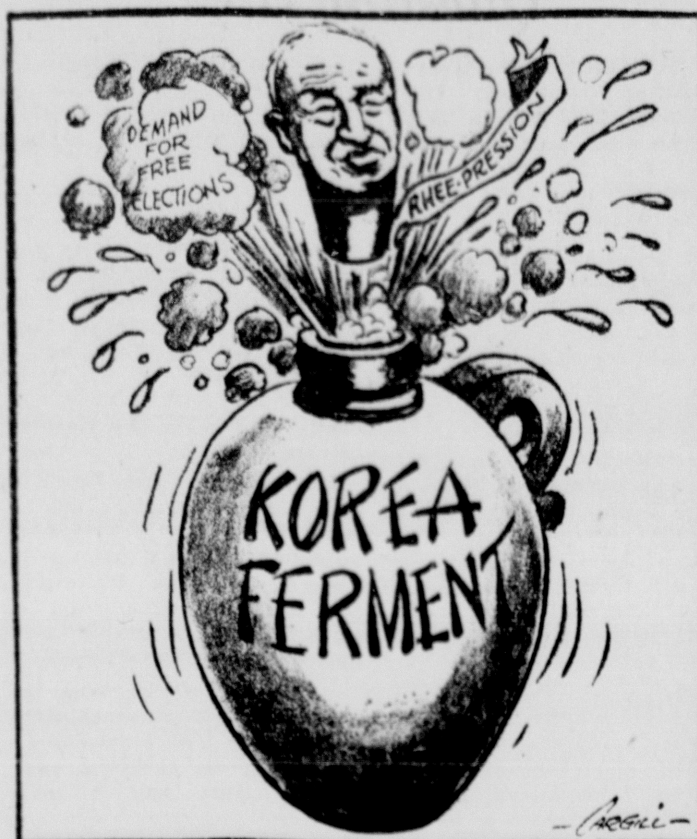

Basic purpose of the agency is the redevelopment of blighted areas of the county—residential, industrial and commercial—through a sound program looking toward the future needs and growth of the area.

The commissioners deserve the plaudits of all county citizens for their initiative in reviving the authority. It augurs well for the community to have an agency of this nature looking out for its well being.

Redevelopment, of course, is one phase of the overall coordinated program that also includes planning and zoning. All three are essential to the orderly growth of Monroe County.

Having taken this first step, the commissioners can now be expected to move on to the appointment of a new planning commission to take the place of the group named Nov. 20, 1955, but now inactive.

Real progress will be assured once the redevelopment and planning agencies, and later the zoning commission, get down to business on plotting the future growth of the county.

Democracy! It's Powerful Stuff!

Telling British

William Clark monitored a television show for the British people, telling them all about the United States. His program consisted of dissenters, some of them astonishingly off-beat, who told the British people what is wrong with America.

Norman Thomas was brought into this unlikely company. Norman Thomas has all his life been a dissenter and has come out of it one of the most respected men in America. On Clark's program, he said:

"... Oh, we're still a democracy, an imperfect democracy, but I'm not decrying it altogether, but practically we're governed by four bureaucracies. The Civil Government bureaucracy, the Military bureaucracy, the bureaucracy of big management in big business and big labour."

The great Norman Thomas was followed by someone called Nipsey Russell, who is a Negro. Of him, William Clark said:

"Nipsey Russell appearing as he does each night at a night club in Harlem, New York's Negro quarter. An individual dissenter who uses humor to reflect and colour the bitterness of his race."

However, I find nothing to quote. Russell seems to have been too angry to make much sense. Adam Clayton Powell did better at Bandung. Norman Maller, who followed Nipsey Russell, said this:

"... But it does to me seem true that the most adventurous and the most lively of the Negroes in America have developed a tradition of living in the present which has been almost an underground tradition and has by now given the boring, cancerous state of American life this new tradition of the Negro has come to have an enormous appeal to Americans because it's a way of staying alive, it's a way of finding one's growth."

"Now it's quite nihilistic of course, and it's quite ruthless in a way, everyone is, if you take it to its end, obviously every hipster must be first concerned with his own needs and pay very little attention to the needs of others unless they happen to agree with his own."

William Clark, seeking authentic Americans, hits on Grant Avenue in San Francisco and comes up with one Bob Kaufman who had this amazing comment to make on his own country:

"The Abolition Manifesto. Abolitionists join nothing but their hands, legs or other sense. Abolitionists do not look at pictures painted by presidents and unemployed prime ministers. In times of national peril abolitionists, as real Americans, stand ready to drink themselves to death for their country."

"Abolitionists will not feel pain no matter how much it hurts. Abolitionists will not use the word 'square' except when talking to squares. Abolitionism was founded by Barabbas, inspired by his dying words 'I wanted to be in the middle, but I went too far out.' Abolitionism's main function is to unite the soul with oatmeal cookies.

"Abolitionists love love, hate hate, drink drinks, smoke smokes, live lives, die deaths. Abolitionist writers write writing or nothing at all. Abolitionists demand the re-establishment of the government in its rightful home at Disneyland."

Kaufman said more which is equally intelligible. There were two more Beatniks, Ginsberg and Orlovsky, who were also brilliant. Ginsberg, for instance, said: "I like poetry that smells, that has a smell to it."

To give another side, I am sure you never saw in America, William Clark gave his British audience, Philip Lamantia. Ever hear of him? He said to the people of England:

"... And I go around with whoever which means all kinds of weird persons. I like. Junkies, tricks, dummy poets, mads, hold-up men, squares, priests, monks, professional bums, beat Jews, Jew-haters, Spade-trumpet players, pot-heads, Zen nuts, Anti-spades, super gigolos, coke-heads, murderers, okie poets, smugglers, put-down artists, hippies, flips and black supremacy — wild ones. My myth is my people — they make grass grow on sky. Fire and who knows when the ghost of Edgar Allan Poe lumines my nights. I'm high most of the time, the sickest of San Francisco, the sickest of San Francisco. I want opium. Police confiscate opium. I want police to give me opium."

A nice picture of White-chapel or Chelsea in London but do we have such people here?

I have run out of room, but not of witnesses. There will be others who will do their best to give the United States a very ugly black eye.

Interpreting The News

Government Branches Differ

By J. M. Roberts (AP News Editor)

The United States is having trouble coordinating its attitude toward undemocratic practices abroad.

As the House of Representatives voiced concern Monday for the fate of captive peoples in Eastern Europe, the State Department was letting it be known that it was avoiding involvement in Turkey's, civil rights dispute.

The House passed a resolution expressing hope that President Eisenhower would take up the matter of the "captive satellites" at the summit conference. The action had the consent if not the full approval of the State Department.

The official position of the State Department regarding Turkey was still one of "no comment." The word got out, however, that this country does not consider it has a responsibility in the Turkish matter as it did in the recent Korean flareup.

The United States has given the Turkish government, under both the present and the previous regimes, a great deal of money. As in Korea, a vast proportion of it has gone for military purposes.

But there is a difference between helping Turkey play her role in NATO under a government which would and could have operated without it, and helping a regime actually sponsored by the United States and the United Nations, a regime which embarrassed its god-father.

There is also a difference between the Turkish and South African situations. The United States has taken its stand against the South African government. Civil rights is the issue in both cases.

The House action, on the other hand, represents a desire for the United States to maintain at all times an open stand against repression of peoples. It wants the "fundamental freedoms" restored in the satellites.

The negotiations between the U.S. and Red China began in September 1955, following assurances that American prisoners would be released in return for the "discussions of other differences." Twenty-three prisoners were released that year, but five others, serving long sentences for alleged espionage, are still held.

In 1958, the discussions were shifted from Prague to Warsaw, when Ambassador Beam, who was stationed there, took them over. The meetings between him and Wang Ping-nan have been held monthly ever since. But late in March, the Red diplomat sprang his surprise request for a delay until May 17, to enable him to return to Peking for "consultations and new instructions."

When Beam sought the reason for that, Wang Ping-nan said he could not discuss the matter.

Teetering On Edge — So far as this country is concerned, the five-year-old discussions are becoming increasingly irksome and futile.

In recent months, Ambassador Wang Ping-nan has not only delivered long and violent harangues against the U.S., but has even refused to discuss the fate of the five imprisoned American civilians.

This bitter backstage development was disclosed by Assistant Secretary J. Graham Parsons at a meeting with the House Foreign Affairs Committee. According to the chief of Far Eastern Affairs, all Peking now wants to consider is "the withdrawal of the U.S. from the Western Pacific."

"The talks are becoming increasingly acrimonious," Parsons said. "We have continued to meet at intervals of four weeks and to press for two things: The release of the five Americans who have been held hostage in China despite the commitment of the Chinese Communists in September 1955 to release them at once, and the renunciation of force in the Formosa Straits."

"But the Chinese Communists are consistently saying, and often in the toughest language so far used in the negotiations that they will deal with the situation as they see fit. They accuse us of interfering in their internal affairs, and say there is no problem between us other than the problem of the U.S. withdrawal from the Western Pacific."

"That is the only issue they will now discuss."

Looming Battle — West Berlin's heroic and dynamic Mayor or Willy Brandt is increasingly becoming the most likely opponent of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer in next year's national elections. Long a leader in the Social Democratic Party, Brandt is being vigorously urged by its younger elements as the standard-bearer to lead the fight against the Christian Democratic Union, which under Adenauer has ruled West Germany since the first post-war election in 1949.

One reason the State Department does not believe Premier Khrushchev will force a showdown on West Berlin is a visit he is slated to make to Austria in July. That trip will follow President Eisenhower's June visit to Russia. State Department and Intelligence authorities consider it certain the Soviet ruler will do nothing to upset either of these trips.

Otto Skorzeny, notorious Hitler hatchet-man who "rescued" Mussolini from Italian partisans, wants to organize a division of "Spanish volunteers" for NATO. According to Skorzeny, this outfit would consist of so-called "super-national troops," who would be directly under General Lauris Norstad, NATO commander, Department authorities to conjecture whether the Red Chinese are preparing some diplomatic or other maneuver in an effort to link these protected negotiations with the summit deliberations.

Secretary Herter is inclined to this view, and has discussed possible strategy to meet such a move.

At a State Department council, before going to Europe, Herter cited the fact that the Chinese Communists are known to want to "inject themselves into the Paris conference," and could be expected to go to great lengths to do that. He pointed out they had accomplished this at the 1955 summit meeting in Geneva, by bringing about the still-pending negotiations with this country.

Herter told his assistants that the U.S., Britain and France have agreed not to permit this to happen again.

No Road Resurfacing Set For West Main St. Area

TRAFFIC problems, condition of streets, drainage and conversion of parking meters were among the problems discussed by Stroudsburg Borough Council at its meeting last night.

Firm Plans To Post Work Area

STROUDSBURG Chief of Police Jack Tretheway said yesterday, "We have received word from the Deihl and Lick Construction Company, contractors working on the Stroudsburg Thruway on West Main Street, that they are going to post no trespassing signs in the area."

Spokesman for the company reported that several acts of vandalism have occurred and the cost of repair or replacement have cost the firm approximately $700.

He, the spokesman, said that windows in the crane have been broken, several drums containing tar were overturned and holes punched in the ends allowing the tar to drain, and several pumps electrically operated have been dumped into the creek.

There is great danger that some one will be electrocuted as the pumps are operated on high voltage, he noted.

Anyone on the property, other than the workmen, will be arrested and tried on charges of trespassing.

Just Misses Boy Tretheway also reported that a young boy riding a bicycle and chasing a fire truck to a fire Monday was almost hit by a second fire truck.

The second truck had to come to a complete stop and narrowly missed the boy.

There is a Borough ordinance covering vehicles chasing fire apparatus to the scene of a fire. Bicycles are classified as a vehicle and children operating them will be arrested and charged under the ordinance.

borough it is considering a proposal for eliminating a hazardous curve at the west end of the interborough bridge between Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg.

No action was taken on a proposal to convert all the borough's parking meters to accept no coin smaller than a nickel after Borough Manager Harold E. Snyder told council one company will make a study of the entire meter setup and make recommendations at no cost to the borough.

200 Per Hour
Council was notified by the highways department that to install a walk light at Fifth and Main Sts. the corner would have to have a pedestrian travel rate of 200 persons an hour. Traffic at the corner is considerably below that figure.

A resolution "favoring in principle" planning for community development was adopted. It said that council feels such a program is most effective at the county level and expressed its willingness to cooperate with such a program.

The problem of highway water draining from Foxtown Hill across the property of Herman Glou, 325 Clermont Ave., first brought before council in 1957, was reintroduced in a letter from Kennard Lewis, Glou's attorney.

Lewis told council the State Highways Dept. has advised his client that the problem is strictly one for the borough to correct.

A search was ordered for an ordinance which may or may not have been passed in 1926 or 1927 when Route 611 was relocated and which may throw light on the borough's responsibility in the matter.

The search was ordered after Lewis, in his letter, referred to an "agreement" which the highways department said was made under which the borough assumed responsibility for drainage within its limits.

Other Action
In other action, Council: Granted requests for curb cuts to Daniel G. Warner, 23 N. Ninth St., and William D. Johnson for a service station on the east side of N. Fifth St. at Phillips St.

Tabled until a special meeting next week an offer of Thruway Equipment Co. for a lease-buy deal on a new street sweeper after hearing that repairs to the one now owned by the borough will cost at least $725.43.

Report Minorities Now Overlooked In History

HARRISBURG (AP)—The role of minority groups is being overlooked in history textbooks in American schools, a Jewish education leader said Wednesday.

"Very few books give more than a line to this (role)," said Gertrude Noar of New York City, national education director for the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith.

Miss Noar, appearing before a task force of Gov. Lawrence's committee on education, said more attention should be given to human relations—specifically, intergroup relations—in schools.

"Minority group children do not always have even equal encouragement to remain in school," she said. "While there, many of them do not have equal opportunity to learn. For them, learning is often blocked by their own self-concept of inferiority, which is caused by the inferior status accorded to their group in our society."

Asked by a subcommittee member what the situation is in Pennsylvania's 67 counties, Miss Noar replied she didn't know.

She said, however, a national study of standard textbooks used in schools found that while material objectionable to minority groups had been removed, there was no positive statement of the role of minority groups inserted.

"History courses and textbooks need to be revised so that the roles played by such minority groups as Jews and Negroes in our early as well as recent history are included," she said.

The public hearing by the Task Force on Curriculum was the first of 15 planned by the committee which was organized April 4 to study state education needs.

The only other group to appear at the two-hour hearing was the Pennsylvania Federation of Teachers, representing Philadelphia's teachers. Most Pennsylvania teachers are members of the Pennsylvania State Education Assn.

Miss Margaret Root, executive secretary of the Philadelphia organization, raised her principal questions about grouping children according to ability and about regulating the length of the school day.

The federation led a fight against legislation before the 1959 general assembly to establish minimum hours for school days and school years.

Miss Root challenged a recommendation of ability grouping by Dr. James B. Conant, former Harvard University president who published a study of U.S. high schools two years ago. She said:

"Dr. Conant, who has never made a schedule for a high school underestimates the difficulties of grouping the top 25 per cent subject by subject. The experience of some years has shown that even in large high schools, such grouping is complicated and often impossible to follow completely. Most large schools simply cannot handle groups small enough to be effective."

Buying Against Deadline

By William A. Doyle

Q. I am the treasurer of my high school class. We are in our third year and hope to make a class trip next year. The present senior class is now on a trip to Europe. We don't plan anything on that scale.

A. I hate to be the one who puts the wet blanket on what seems to be a very fine motive. It is always unwise to buy stocks against an absolute deadline. That point has been stressed here often. At the time you need the money, the market value of your stock might be below the price you paid for them.

To get the amount of money you evidently need, you would have to buy "volatile" stocks—the kind that move up and down in price rapidly. Beginners in the stock market should not take that risk.

Before you do anything, you had better get some good legal advice. Because of your ages, forming an investment club does not seem to be the answer.

Frankly, it seems that you will have to find some other way to boost the class treasury.

Q. I own some shares of a mutual fund. I reinvest all my dividends, and capital-gains distributions in additional shares. Each year the fund sends me a statement of the amounts of money involved. On my Fed-

Stroud Twp. Firemen Put Out Blaze

STROUD Township volunteer firemen extinguished a grass and woods blaze which burned over two acres near Route 611 above the company's fire house at 3:05 p.m. yesterday.

Lester Rice, fire chief, said employees of J. H. Beers, Inc., were burning trees and brush along the route of the Stroudsburg Thruway when the blaze got out of control.

Urges Caution

Rice, in urging caution in burning refuse or brush, said that since last Spring, the company has answered 16 grass fire alarms, all the result of carelessness.

He said 400 men have contributed 6,400 man hours to fighting the blazes and the cost of rolling 49 trucks on the alarms was $1,225.

Castro Proposes New Ambassador

WASHINGTON (AP) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro was reported yesterday to have proposed Jose Miro Cardona, his former ambassador to Spain, as new Cuban ambassador to Washington.

No advice that Miro would be acceptable to the United States has yet been sent to Havana, but U.S. officials regard him as friendly to the United States and such word is expected to be sent in due course.

Some U.S. officials believe in fact that Castro's choice of Miro for the Washington post could mark a step toward betterment in U.S.-Cuban relations.

With other nutrients, protein affects the differentiation of cells during development . . . participates in all metabolic processes which result in growth . . . and is stored as the structural part of all of the soft tissues of the body. In relation to body weight, requirement for protein . . . expressed as such or as essential amino acids and total nitrogen . . . is highest during infancy . . . slowly decreasing as rate of growth decreases until adult size is reached.

As increasing amounts of high quality protein are fed to children, the amino acid pattern of the diet decreases in importance. ## Witnesses Assembly May 27-29

STEPHEN BORTLIK, presiding minister of the East Stroudsburg congregation announced that ten congregations from the northern part of Pennsylvania Circuit 2 of Jehovah's Witnesses are making preparations to attend the assembly to be held in the High School Auditorium at Newton, N. J., May 27 to 29.

Mr. Bortlik stated that "the purpose of the assembly is to train its members to be better teachers. The world is faced with a serious shortage of teachers. Teachers of all kinds are needed, but the greatest need is for those who are competent to set forth the truths contained in God's Holy Word, the Bible. A part of the program will be devoted to Bible research and study to train those attending to become better teachers both from the platform and to the public."

Commenting on the theme of the assembly, "Seek Peace and Pursue It," he stated, "Representatives and statesmen of the various nations have been endeavoring to bring about a satisfactory solution to the problems which now prevent peace. So, in line with the theme, it is not only timely but necessary to turn to the Bible, which points the way to peace. The counsel to be given will emphasize the necessity of pursuing activities which promote peace and will equip them to teach others the way to peace."

The main feature of the three-day assembly will be the public address to be given Sunday, May 29, at 3 p. m., by Kenneth Savoy, who is a representative of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of Brooklyn, N. Y., and district supervisor of the circuit. His talk will be on the subject, "Finding Peace in a Troubled World."

Lions View Movie On Economics

A FILM on American economics was shown to the Lions Club of the Stroudsburgs yesterday at their meeting held at the Penn-Stroud Hotel.

The film dealt with the American system—how its civilization has developed—and asked all Americans to guard the life they lead jealously.

Using a high school theme in one portion and industrial development in a second part, the film depicted life in most phases in the U. S.

Lion Robert Miller wrote to the local club urging an increase in membership in honor of retiring District Governor William Lockhard.

T. Manning Curtis, in charge of entertainment for the coming charter night party, Saturday, May 14, reported on the plans and urged a more intensive sale of tickets.

No meeting of the club is scheduled for Tuesday, May 17.

Just Between Us — —

—By Bobby Westbrook

If the bank had been robbed AFTER the fashion show they might suspect a woman was involved. You know, to get enough funds to buy everything they had seen. Actually, nobody would need to rob a bank at the prices quoted at the show.

As Sally Ferrebee pointed out, nobody needs to go to the city to shop when the same dresses advertised in the city stores are sold here—and often at much less.

I was wishing Sally might make the audience file past on the runway because there were some mighty handsome clothes there, too. From the back of the room, three particular hats stood out: Mary Driebe's, Barbara Samet's and Mary Lester's. But there were plenty of others.

Complicating Emily Ebert's modeling chores was the teasing she took about her coming marriage to Bob Kranendonk, who had just finished thrilling the audience with his songs.

But Rosemary Levy was more nervous over Cindy's performance than of any of her own past modeling days. Incidentally, Rosemary was installed as president of the Junior Woman's Club on her birthday. Definitely NOT her 35th since that is the age when a junior becomes a senior, according to their rules.

Fortunately most of us don't have to abide by any rules but our own for about becoming seniors—but a few more weeks like this one and I'll not only be senior, I'll be superannuated.

We are certainly the busy things.

Junior Woman's Club Close Busy Year; Clubhouse To Benefit From New Projects

The Junior Woman's Club at their annual meeting on Tuesday night presented a check for $500 to Mrs. William Wells of the Child Health Committee as their major welfare project during the year and adopted their own club house, the Stroud Community House, as the beneficiary for next year's major project.

Mrs. Robert Payne presided at the meeting. Mrs. Samuel O. Wells III, president of the Monroe County Federation of Women's Clubs, installed the new officers:

Mrs. Lawrence Levy, president;

Mrs. Peter Wyckoff, first vice president; Mrs. Stanley Grace, second vice president; Mrs. Weldon Garrison, recording secretary; Mrs. Richard Primrose, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Carl Yetter, treasurer.

A letter was read from Arlington W. Williams, attorney for the Mansion House Committee, advising the clubs that legal steps are being investigated in order that the Juniors may have official representation on the board of directors of the club house.

The members then voted to take the Stroud Community House as their project for next year, beginning with a summer project to redecorate the dining room. They plan to organize project teams to raise the necessary money for welfare work instead of having a single major project next year.

The annual reports of all committee chairmen were given and Mrs. Payne thanked the membership for their part in an outstanding club year. Among the "firsts" chalked up by the club were:

Largest profit from any project from the "Around the World Bazaar";

Largest attendance at any single meeting at the Mother-Senior Night;

First Club musicale; first delegate to the Penn State Conference; first newsletter; first log-book and first entry in the sewing contest.

The program featured Mrs. Chester Hindrich speaking on "Around the World With Bells."

With the official year closed, the club will end its social activities with a dinner dance for members and their husbands on Saturday, June 11, at the Club Fernwood, Bushkill. Mrs. John Osborne and Mrs. Earl Warner are banquet chairmen.

Stroud Union Parents Hear Pointers On How To Study

Members of Stroud Union Parent-Teachers Assn. were meeting the mystic letters "PQRST." They represented clues to effective study presented by Mrs. Rose Mekeel at the May meeting of the group at the high school.

During World War 2, in officers training and in the Air Force, they discovered that the PQRST method of study is the most efficient, Mrs. Mekeel said. The students learned faster, and retained what they had learned. The brighter students got brighter and the average students really learned something.

The method: P: Preview, look through the chapter at topic headings and scan the chapter as a whole. Q: Question: Look at the questions at the end of the chapter, ask questions when you read headings.

R: Read actively by answering the questions you asked yourself in the second step. S: State in your own words what you have read, underline main points in the text—if you own the book—and construct outline from memory.

T: Test yourself—after an interval—for review. It is important to allow one-half study time to questioning and stating. Mrs. Mekeel said. She also outlined the laws of learning including motivation, reaction, concentration, organization and repetition.

She was introduced by Mrs. Russell Pritchard. At the business meeting officers were elected and installed by Mrs. Robert Hellmann, past president:

Mrs. James T. Kitson, president; Mrs. Andrew Keiser, vice president; Mrs. Sol Rothstein, secretary; and Mrs. Joan Weber, treasurer.

It was voted to buy a year's subscription for each teacher for "Apple for the Teacher," a magazine put out by the National Parent-Teacher Assn.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Edward McMahon, Mrs. Edward Evans and Mrs. Edward Yost.

Mrs. LaBar President Of Mother's Club

A theater party will take the place of the regular May meeting. Colored slides were shown by Mrs. William Weideman of Delaware, N.J., on her recent trip to Africa.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. LaBar, Mrs. Carlton Tucker, East Bangor; Mrs. Manzi, Mrs. Robert Potter, Slateford; Mrs. Kearney, Mrs. Selesky, Mrs. Delp, Mrs. Ambruch, Mrs. John A. Ribble, and Mrs. Russell Reimer, Portland; Mrs. Weideman, and a guest Mrs. Victor Melnick, Mount Bethel.

COMPLAINT!

Last week one person poured off all my juices, and fished out all my soft little bones. I was a wreck seeing so much of me being wasted.

Your Pal,

The Wyckoff Shopper

AB Wyckoff
STROUDSBURG, PA.

Something new in the field of flattery for women is Revlon's line of gossamer tints known as "Ultima." Pearl Walter pointed these out to me the other afternoon when I was jotting down notes for Mother's Day gifts. Certainly they are the ultimate in elegant packaging.

On display are a plastic, gold-decorated compact, priced at only 2.00; a stately bottle of foundation liquid tagged 3.75, and an absolutely stunning lipstick with a pretty torchlike twist at the top, priced at 2.50. Refills are 1.50.

Those of you who use Revlon cosmetics and know the fine quality of the Revlon line, will appreciate the new grandeur of its eye-catching presentation, I'm sure. As I said before, it's the ultimate!

If Mother needs daytime dresses (and a variety of them will keep her looking daisy fresh and beautiful all summer) she'll be delighted with some of the pretty budget cottons offered in Cora Albertson's department. Priced from 2.98 to 6.98, these dresses have distinguishing names... Janet Lynn... Karen Kane... Simplicity... Nip'n Tuck... Faithful Frocks... Smart Setter... and others. Not only are there variety styles for every figure type, but the size range covers the entire scope of femininity: 12½ to 32½ and 10 to 52.

Cora tells me she also has lovely slips in sizes 32 to 52, and gowns for Mother in sizes 32 to Double X. For the younger mother who wears billowing skirts, she suggests a bouffant petticoat, some of which are so elegant with lace and ribbons they almost deserve a "place in the sun," so to speak. Dusters are welcome gifts too, and are priced upward from 3.98. Many are wash 'n wear, making it doubly easy for Mother to be crisp and beautiful.

As a matter of fact, so much of the new under-cover apparel is wash and wear, lingerie keeps Mother from lingering too long at the ironing board.

Just a reminder that this is THURSDAY. If your Mother, or some dear friend whom you wish to honor on Mother's Day, resides out of town, better hurry posting that gift or card. If you purchase your gifts at Wyckoff's, the store will be happy to pack and mail them for you, for the cost of postage.

Education, Mrs. Theodore Schultz; Spiritual Development, Mrs. Wm. Hannas; Public Relations, Mrs. John Sutton.

There were 81 present.

Mrs. James Cummings, the retiring president, called attention to the fact that four years ago, when the Deanery was reactivated, there were 23 members at the meeting held in Mt. Pocono.

Spiritual House Cleaning

Miss Mary Zabreski, diocesan chairman of Spiritual Development, was the guest speaker. She spoke of the spiritual benefits gained, when one goes on a closed retreat to spend a weekend in silence, away from the noise and hubbub of every day living, to appraise oneself, finding out our faults, taking inventory of ourselves, and as women do with their homes every six months, when they clean house, get rid of the things that we find unpleasant in ourselves, replacing them with new resolutions and enthusiasm.

She said that every one needs some time of meditation and that our Lord went away for forty days and nights, into the wilderness.

Right Rev. Msgr. C. A. McHugh, pastor of St. Mary's, and Dean of the Monroe-Pike Deanery, spoke of his 54 years spent in the two counties. Speaking of their growth he said that during July and August then there were two masses instead of the 40 now held.

Rev. Wm. Cusick reminded mothers of their duty to guide, teach and train their children,

starting from little children, saying it is too late to say "What shall I do" when the child is as big as you."

Rev. E. R. Galligan offered the closing prayer. Benediction was attended in the church.

Miss Marie Brown was program chairman, and Mrs. John

Sutton chairman of arrangements committee.

Refreshments were served with Mrs. John Regan and Mrs. Anthony Costa presiding at the tea

table.

The meeting of the new executive board will be held June 27 at the Penn-Stroud Hotel in Stroud-burg. The Fall meeting will be held October 2 at Our Lady of Victory Church, Tannersville.

Grimm Resigns As Chicago Manager. Boudreau Named

CHICAGO (AP)—Charlie Grimm Wednesday resigned as manager of the Chicago Cubs, and Lou Boudreau, former American League manager and now a Cub broadcaster, was named to succeed Grimm for the balance of the season.

Grimm, 62, had begun his third stint as Cub pilot this season but lasted only 23 days.

Boudreau, 42, last managed for the Kansas City A's from 1955 until he was relieved Aug. 6, 1957, in favor of Harry Craft.

The announcement came shortly after the Cubs won their sixth game against 11 defeats, beating the Pittsburgh Pirates 5-1 behind the five-hit pitching of rookie Dick Ellsworth.

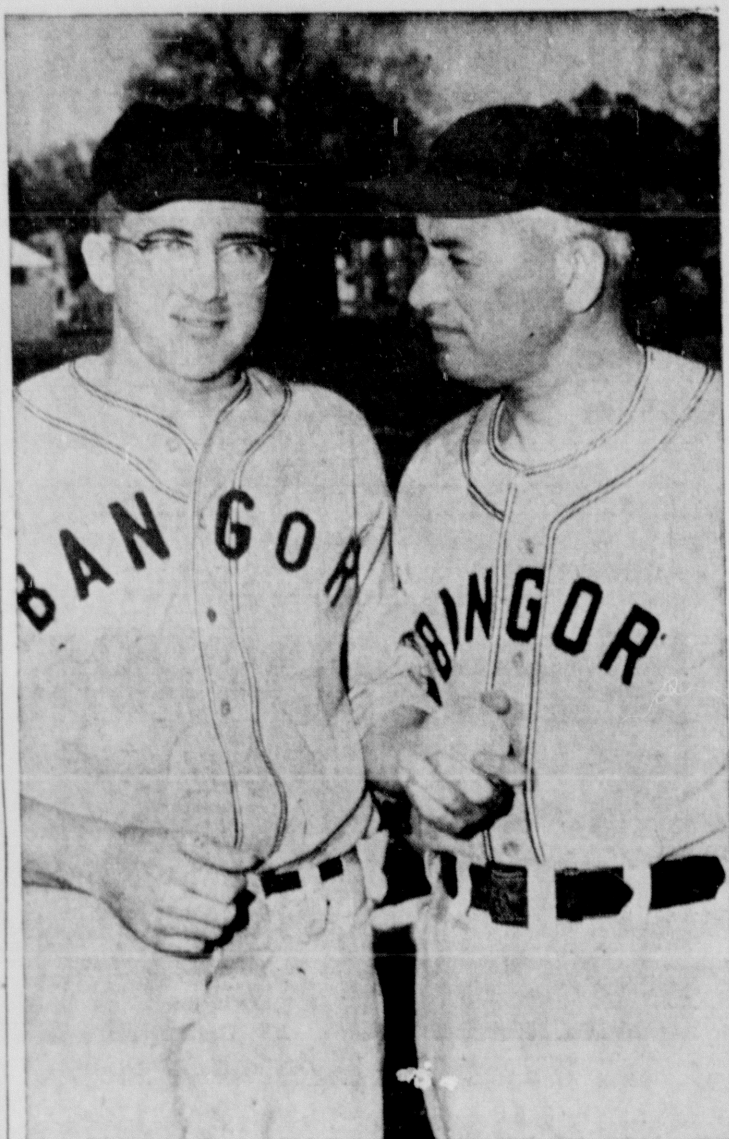

Grimm will replace Boudreau as the color announcer for the Cub game over radio station WGN.

The switch in management for the last place Cubs was announced jointly by owner P. K. Wrigley of the Cubs and Ward Quaal, vice president and general manager of radio-TV station WGN. Boudreau has served as baseball commentator for WGN.

Cub Vice President John Holland said that a conference was held Wednesday morning between Wrigley, Grimm and himself and it was decided that a managerial change was in order.

Holland said Grimm offered his resignation, which was accepted.

Grimm remains with the club in the office of vice president—a post he held prior to succeeding Bob Scheffing as manager. Scheffing was released after the 1959 campaign.

Schoonover Gets Loss

Slaters Whip Mounties With Unearned Run, 4-3

TWO seventh-inning Stroud Union High School errors brought in an unearned run, to give Slaters a 4-3 win over the Mountaineers at Gordon Giffels' Field Wednesday.

Dick Cole set the Mounties down on four hits and struck out six. He walked only one man.

Bill Schoonover went the distance for Stroud Union. He was charged with six hits and four runs, two of them unearned. He walked two and struck out five in the rapid game that took only 1:45.

Stay In Cellar
The loss leaves Stroud Union in the Lehigh Valley League cellar with a 1-3 record. Slaters is 2-3 in loop play.

The Slaters grabbed a 1-0 lead in the top of the first, when Bob Jones stole home on the second half of a delayed double steal.

Stroud Union knotted the county in its half of the first on almost the identical play.

After Bill Possinger had opened the inning by striking out, John Carson singled and moved to second on a walk to Carl Kohl.

Schoonover slapped a ground ball to shortstop Dick Reitz who slipped it to second baseman Ron Andruvitch, forcing Kohl. Carson moved to third and Schoonover was safe at first.

Carson Scores
Schoonover broke for second while Cole was in his stretch and the right hander wheeled around and threw to second. Carson scored from third on the play.

The Mountaineers took a 3-1 lead three innings later, pushing across two in the fourth.

Kohl was safe at first on Reitz' error. Schoonover legged out an infield hit, moving up Kohl. Don Metzgar was out, pitcher to first, advancing both runners.

Second Run
Leo Fralley singled, driving in Schoonover. Barry Bond struck out to end the frame.

Bob Jones' triple and Larry Jones' single accounted for two Slaters runs in the fifth, to tie it up, 3-3.

Andruvitch grounded out to open the seventh. Bob Mengel was safe on Kohl's error and Bob Jones moved him to second with a sacrifice bunt. Larry Jones singled to right and when Bond bobbled the ball, Bob Jones scored.

Cole set the Mounties down without trouble in the bottom of the seventh.

Cavaliers Drop 6-2 Decision To Bangor

BANGOR High School pushed across three runs in the first inning and went on to defeat East Stroudsburg 6-2 at East Stroudsburg Playground Field Wednesday.

It was the third win in a row for the Slaters, boosting their Lehigh-Norhampton mark to 3-2. It was the fourth straight league loss for East Stroudsburg.

Duane LaBar and Lou Joella hit home runs to trigger an eight-hit attack off starter Foster Ladlee and Don Westcott.

Ladlee lasted two and one-third innings, giving up five runs and five hits. Four of the runs were unearned.

Stops Rally
Westcott took over with two men aboard in the third and put out the fire by striking out the next two batters.

Westcott struck out seven along the way and only issued two hits and one run.

Joella blasted a long four-bagger to deep right center field in the seventh against Westcott.

Third Homer
LaBar banged his third homer of the season over the left field wall to score Bill Dawe ahead of him in the third.

Leo Reimer went the route for Bangor. He scattered three hits, two by Joe Steele. Steele has picked up four hits in his last six trips.

Steele's triple in the sixth in Harold Myers got the third East Stroudsburg hit, a double, ning highlighted a two-run uprising.

ESSC Trackers Blast Kutz 109-17; Sweep Six Events

EAST Stroudsburg State College track team swept six of 14 events, to trounce Kutztown, 109-17, at Normal Hill Wednesday.

Kutztown managed only two firsts, taking the javelin with a booming toss of 188-feet by Tom Messina and winning the discus on the strength of Bill Simon's 112-feet, six-inch throw.

It was the second dual meet win for the Warriors, who were unopposed in the pole vault and two-mile run.

Art Wilson scored 18 points for East Stroudsburg, including three first places.

Wins Sprints
He captured the 100-yard dash in 10.4 seconds, the 220-yard dash in 22.7 seconds and the 440-yard dash in 55.7 seconds. He finished second to teammate Jim Richardson in the 880-yard run.

Russ Hopewell added 13 points to the winner's total. He only jumped once in the high jump at five-feet, six-inches but it was good enough for first place.

His leap of 22-feet easily outdistanced the field in the broad jump. In between broad jumps, he finished second in the 220-yard dash.

First Win
East Stroudsburg's Joe Galizio scored his first triumph of the season, breezing home by 25-yards in the mile in 4:55.

Shelly Chamberlain also broke the victory ice by winning the two-mile run in 11:29, Galizio finished second after being shoved across the finish line by Ray Kressler.

Kressler was named the "most valuable team member" and elected captain of the squad shortly before the meet. He purposely loafed in the two-mile event to allow Chamberlain and Galizio to earn enough points to win letters.

Bucs Lose To Chicago Rookie, 5-1

CHICAGO (AP)—Southpaw Dick Ellsworth, recalled from Houston Tuesday, handcuffed the first-place Pittsburgh Pirates with five hits for a 5-1 Chicago Cub victory Wednesday.

The Cubs, whose eight-hit attack included a two-run homer by Frank Thomas in the eighth, handed starter Bob Friend his first defeat after three victories. It was Pittsburgh's second loss in 11 games.

Ellsworth's initial major league victory came in the first Cub performance since early in the 1958 season when he pitched two innings while suffering a defeat from Cincinnati. At Fort Worth last season, he fashioned a 10-14 record.

First Win
Ellsworth struck out four and walked none in a masterful pitching performance, yielding the lone Pirate run in the fourth.

Strouds Move Into Pennant Picture

THE STROUDS are making noise like they plan to win the Blue Mountain League.

They've dragged Frank Radler away from the golf course for another hitch as manager. Radler guided the club to the seasonal championship in 1958 but sat out last year because of illness.

Radler is a former player with Rochester in the International League and managed the Poconos in the old North Atlantic League.

Radler can also take his turn on the mound. In 1958 he was 7-0, and was given the league's outstanding pitcher award.

College Players Carry Load

The Strouds will count on college players to carry most of the load but have acquired two ex-minor leaguers, Lemel Isom and Milton Stanley to beef-up their attack.

Isom, who spent several years in the Detroit farm system, is probably the fastest man on the club. Isom is on the small side but has quick wrists and is an effective punch hitter.

Stanley was a long-time performer with the Indianapolis Clowns.

One of Radler's first problems, but a pleasant one, is to come up with a second base, short stop, third base combination. He has at least two strong candidates for each of the slots, all of them with noteworthy credentials.

Dick Gray, Colgate University's captain and second baseman is returning as is Barry Tretthway, Cornell shortstop.

Paul Lim, Ursinus shortstop, is also on the club's roster.

Feature Warrior's Top Hitters

East Stroudsburg State College second baseman Ernie Howe and his third base teammate, Al Miller, round out Radler's all-college middle and left side.

Howe is tied with Dick Zimmer for the Warriors' batting lead. Zimmer has also been signed for an outfield role with the Strouds. John Brunner, East Stroudsburg's top pitcher a year ago, rounds out the Warriors who will work for the Strouds.

The Strouds will make it tough for the league's seven other teams, if their pitchers can come through and they can keep their heads above water until the college boys end their Halls of Ivy seasons.

Five Share Pitching Duties

Bill Metzgar, Hal Jacobsen, Al Schock, Radler and Brunner form the pitching staff.

Metzgar was the most valuable in the league's all-star game last year. Jacobsen can throw with the best for five or six innings but tires after that. Brunner has been ineffective in college ball this year but has proved his pitching ability last year when he posted the best won-lost mark for East Stroudsburg.

The league opens Sunday, with the Strouds facing Nazareth at Gordon Giffels, at 2 p. m.

Nazareth finished in the cellar last year but has changed managers. Nazareth led the loop in stolen bases in 1959.

SC Girls Take 5-1 Tennis Win

GETTYSBURG — Bobby Seewages defeated Jane Dunn to earn the only Gettysburg point as East Stroudsburg State College girls' tennis team riddled the Bullets 4-1.

Miss Seewages whipped Miss Dunn, 6-3, 6-3.

Wilma Schierer evened the count in the second singles, dropping Carol Charles, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3. Gladys Shelly put the Warriors ahead for good in the last singles, downing Mimi Hall, 6-3, 3-6, 6-1.

In the doubles, Mary Lou Seacock and Gall Nonemaker beat Margie Evans and Beverly Mack 6-2, 3-6, 6-0 and Karen Begel and Rose Colebert topped Gloria Mann and Betsy Deers, 6-2, 6-0.

Nazareth Tops Bangor 58 1/2-40 1/2

TWO school records were broken by Bangor trackmen Wednesday but it didn't prevent the Slaters from losing to Nazareth, 58 1/2-40 in the winners cinders.

Bob Collura broke the 440-yard dash mark of 56 seconds set by Barry Becker in 1948. Collura ran the quarter in 53 seconds flat.

Sal Molle finished second in the shot put but his toss of 42' 1 1/2' topped Philip Falcone's 41' 2" toss in 1949.

Tim East was the only double winner for the Slater, who made it three losses in a row.

East won the 880-yard run in 2:09.8 and captured the mile in 4:45.3.

Arson Indicated In College Fire

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—State arson investigators poked through the smoldering ruins of the Kentucky State College gymnasium yesterday to see if an early-morning fire could be linked to student uprisings.

All signs pointed to arson, but no arrests had been made and the chief investigator said no clear lead has yet been found.

The fire, causing an estimated $100,000 damage, climaxed four days of student demonstrations against school regulations and the administration of the Negro college.

Mental Health To Elect Officers At Dinner-Meet

ELECTION of officers will highlight the annual dinner meeting of the Monroe County Mental Health Assn. at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, May 12, in the Penn-Stroud Hotel.

The speaker will be Ralph E. Davis, director of psychological services and activity treatment services at Clarks Summit State Hospital.

He will speak on aspects of mental health, illustrating his talk with motion pictures.

Davis has served as staff assistant for personnel relations for the Aluminum Co. of America and as chief psychologist for Woodville State Hospital.

He received his bachelor's degree from Duquesne University, his master's from Kent State University and is a doctoral candidate at the University of Ottawa.

The dinner meeting is open to the public and reservations may be made by calling the association office at Hamilton 1-1299.

Humphrey Seeks Votes

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) scoured piecemeal for votes in industrial plants of the lush Ohio Valley section yesterday while his counterpart in the May 10 primary returned to the depressed coal fields.

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) is contesting with Humphrey in a Democratic presidential popularity match that has focused national attention on West Virginia's primary, and its economic and social problems as well.

Kennedy was flying back into the state after a day in Washington to be at Welch for an evening speech. Welch is the seat of McDowell County, which produces more bituminous coal than any other county in the country.

The two men come face to face for a televised political debate Wednesday night in Charleston, the state capital. The hour-long debate will start at 7:30 p.m. EST and be televised over a state hook-up, originating at WCHS-TV.

Meanwhile, Humphrey was stumping Tuesday in a glass plant, an auto bumper plant where the workers had just walked out in a management-worker dispute, and a dress factory where he went from machine to machine talking with scores of women operators.

MOTOR vehicle accidents killed 37,600 and injured 2,870,000 persons on U. S. highways during 1959.

Memorial Services Held For Mrs. Gladys Fisher

MEMORIAL services were held at the recent meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary, Barrett, for Mrs. Gladys Fisher, a charter member of the organization.

Other business was the donation of $10 to the Veterans Hospital in Wilkes-Barre, for their annual carnival to be held in June.

Mrs. Verna Mortimer said she had quilted nine lap robes and sent them to the Veterans Hospital, Wilkes-Barre.

The meeting adjourned with the announcement of election of officers to be held at the June meeting.

Following the meeting Poppy Posters were made for the Annual Poppy Drive that takes place later this month.

Officials Admit Padding Returns

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP) — Four members of a Dunmore borough election board readily admitted Wednesday they padded the number of returns at the primary election April 26 so that they would qualify for an extra $5 pay each.

The admissions were made by Judge of Elections Rocco P. DiBiasi, majority inspector Robert Hill, minority inspector Henry Gaughan and machine inspector Peter Gillern at a hearing before the County Board of Elections.

All but Gillern agreed to return the extra pay they received for reporting more than 500 votes were cast in the district.

Board members are paid $10 for a 13-hour shift in districts where 500 votes or less are cast. They are paid an extra $5 when the vote totals 501 or more.
